CSRM LIBRARY PHOTOCOPY REGULATIONS

Notice: Warning Concerning Copyright Restrictions

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted materials.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Photocopies are made available solely for the reference use of the applicant. Photoduplication of such copies is not permitted. Photocopies of manuscript materials remain the property of the California State Railroad Museum Library and are to be returned to the Library when no longer needed by the applicant.

In making copies of published materials, the California State Railroad Museum does not thereby grant permission to reproduce or quote extensively for publication. The applicant assumes full responsibility for any infringement of copyright or publication rights belonging to the author, his heirs, or assigns.

Permission to publish manuscript materials from the California State Railroad Museum collection or to reproduce their contents in any form requires written approval in advance of publication from both the owner of the copyright and the Senior Curator of the California State Railroad Museum. Credit to the California State Railroad Museum Library, and if applicable, to the separate collection from which the manuscript materials were selected, is appreciated.

The California State Railroad Museum reserves the right to restrict the reproduction of rare, fragile, copyright, valuable, or proprietary items.
