CSRM LIBRARY PHOTOGRAPHIC REPRODUCTION REGULATIONS

Notice: Warning Concerning Copyright Restrictions

The copyright Law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Copies of selected materials in the California State Railroad Museum collections are available for the applicant's reference use. The California State Railroad Museum reserves the right to restrict reproduction of rare, fragile, copyright, valuable or proprietary items.

Permission to utilize reproductions of materials in the California State Railroad Museum's collections for other than reference purposes requires written approval from the Senior Curator of the California State Railroad Museum, and, if applicable, the copyright owner. Permission must be secured in advance of any publication, commercial display, or other non-reference use.

The applicant assumes full responsibility for any infringement of copyright, or publication rights belonging to the author, his successors, heirs, or assigns.
