THE POLAR EXPRESS™ Train Ride is an interactive show by the California State Railroad Museum Foundation. The show takes place in three locations:

- The Passenger Station, where guests enjoy shopping, performances, decorations, and activities before boarding the train.
- The Train, which consists of eight cars. This is the main portion of the show and experience, with performances by hot cocoa dancers and a visit from Santa.
- The North Pole, located at Miller Park. This is outdoors, and guests enjoy this portion of the show from inside the train.

All staff, performers, and volunteers will report to the Stanford Gallery at the top of each show day, located at the California State Railroad Museum, 111 I Street Sacramento, CA 95814.

Rehearsal dates:

- Monday, November 20; 3:30-8:30 PM
- Tuesday, November 21 (Invited Dress Rehearsal); 3:30-9:30 PM

Show dates:

- Friday-Sunday, November 24-November 26
- Wednesdays-Sundays, November 29-December 13
- Tuesday & Wednesday, December 20 & December 21
