CSRM LIBRARY & ARCHIVES REPRODUCTION REGULATIONS

Notice: Warning Concerning Copyright Restrictions

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted materials. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

- ❖ The CSRM Library & Archives reserves the right to restrict the reproduction of rare, fragile, copyrighted, valuable, or proprietary items.
- ❖ CSRM Library & archives staff handle the reproduction of materials.
- ❖ Large reproduction orders that require third-party vendors may take up to 3 or more weeks to complete.
- ❖ In making copies of published materials, the CSRM Library & Archives does not thereby grant permission to reproduce or quote extensively for publication. The applicant assumes full responsibility for any infringement of copyright or publication rights belonging to the author, his / her heirs, or assigns.
- ❖ Permission to publish material must be submitted through a separate permissions form (<http://californiarailroad.museum/library>)
- ❖ The CSRM Library & Archives does not hold copyright to all of the original materials in its collection. In those cases where copyright resides elsewhere, permission for reproduction & publication is given on behalf of the CSRM Library & Archives as owner of the physical material and is not intended to include or imply permission of the copyright holder, which must also be obtained by the publisher.
